TROUBLE BELOW.

Almost a Clash at Wingo Yesterday.

TROUBLE AMONG THE COLORED.

Warner Roberts Used an Ax Handle on a Colored Man's Head.

AND THAT STARTED THE TROUBLE.

Reports reached the city today from Wingo that for awhile yesterday a race war seemed imminent at the little town below Mayfield.

Friday night a colored man named Bradford stepped on the favorite cora of Warner Roberts, white, Roberts, crazed with anger and pain demanded to know what he meant by stepping on his feet, to which the colored man replied, "D—n your old feet."

No sooner than the words left his lips, Roberts struck him two or three blows on the head with an ax handle, breaking the heavy hickory in twain.

Bradford is in a dangerous condition, it is said, and yesterday when the town marshal arrested Jack Dyer, colored, on the train, there was great commotion among the colored people, and threats were made to lynch Roberts, the man who wielded the ax handle.

Guns and pistols were freely displayed, however, and the affair finally simmered down and peace prevailed.

DEATH GOT THE POT.

Alex Armstrong, Colored, Loses His Life Over a Nickle.

SHOT BY HOWARD GARDNER.

The Murder Occurred Yesterday Afternoon at Fulton, Ky.

GARDNER IS ONLY A BOY.

Alex Armstrong, a colored section hand, lost his life over a nickel at Fulton yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Howard Gardner, a mere boy, is the murderer, and lives at Fulton, while Armstrong's home was at Union City, Tenn.

The two darkies, according to reports, were engaged in a crap game, when a dispute arose over a nickel. Hot words ensued, and Gardner drew a pistol, firing three or four shots. Only one, however, took effect, and this produced death in a short time. Gardner escaped.

Both were pretty tough customers, and Armstrong was well known here, where he had worked several times.

The killing created little excitement at Fulton.

BROKEN KNIFE BLADE

Tells the Tale of an Attempted House Breaking.

The big house at 1209 Jefferson street, which has been undergoing repairs, was besieged by house breakers last night, but they did not effect an entrance.

Judge Tully has charge of it, and a broken knife blade was found, and in the window this morning, where an attempt had been made to pry it open.

All the tools of the carpenters are inside, and it is supposed that the would-be thieves were after these, as there was nothing else to steal.

THE PASSENGERS JUMPED.

They Imagined the Engine Was Going to Hit 'Em.

Sunday afternoon there was an exciting occurrence about 2:30 o'clock at the railroad crossing and Madison street. A switch engine was coming along at a lively rate, and Motorman Jones, of the People's line, who had a couple of carloads of people, apparently did not see it or the flagman. The passengers all jumped off the car in fright and confusion, but it was backed off before any damage was done.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

One to Be Held at Edwille Today to Nominate a Circuit Judge.

A delegation composed of Messrs. D. L. Redding, Tom Patterson, and W. B. Graham, of Calloway county, passed through the city today en route to Edwille to attend the Republican judicial convention, to nominate a circuit judge. Brethright, according to the above named delegates, will secure the nomination. There were three other delegates appointed, Messrs. J. M. Cole, M. Hodge and J. B. English, but they did not attend.

POLICE NEWS.

Business Very Dull Everywhere Today.

Nobody is Celebrating.

National Holiday, But Judge Sanders Held Court Just the Same.

NOTES GATHERED HERE AND THERE.

Frank Morris, of the city, was fined $25 and costs in Judge Sanders' court this morning on a charge of carrying concealed a deadly weapon. He was arrested Saturday night.

George Wilson is the name of a colored man arrested by Officer Sutherland for prowling and keeping around back premises. His case was continued.

Maybel Hudson was fined $10 and Ada Mann $5 for a breach of the peace, and George Winfrey, for whipping the latter, was fined $30 and costs.

Gall Graham paid the usual dollar for drunkenness.

Albe Grimes was docketed for a breach of the peace, but the case was deferred.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A Narrow Escape for a Watermelon—A Cowardly Miscreant Who Ought to Be Hung.

A colored man and his watermelon came near being run over at the Union Depot yesterday when the noon train arrived. The man stood there like a ten pin when the train was backing in, and paid no attention to the shouts of warning around him, but clung heroically to his watermelon, probably engrossed with visions divine of the forthcoming feast. The train was stopped within a few feet of him, and he was jerked—and not very gently—off the track by a train man.

Some miscreant fired twice through the passenger train from Fulton that arrived yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. The shooting occurred below Fulton, the night before, and it is fortunate that the scoundrel who fired the shots did no harm, other than to the coach window.

C. H. Petty, fireman on No. 191, jumped off the moving locomotive yesterday afternoon at Monroe street, and lost his watch, for which he had just paid $35. He probably dropped it out of his pocket when he jumped, but did not miss it until he reached home.

Mr. George Warfield and wife have gone to Nashville on a visit of several days.

Conductor Wheeler and family passed through at noon en route to Tennessee on a visit. Conductor Sewell, who has been in Georgia, and whose run Conductor Wheeler had, has resumed work.

The railroad shops presented a deserted appearance this morning, being closed down on account of its being a national holiday.

Court at Massac.

Justice Hartley held court all day at Massac Saturday. Ed Fondran was fined $50 and costs for pointing a shot gun at a man. Deputy Sheriff Tobe Rogers, who was driving a hog from the field.

Elver Ewell was fined $50 and costs for drawing a knife on and threatening to kill Sam Hickman.

George Humphreys was fined $2.50 for cursing Tom Owens, of Ballard county.

Ed Boyd was fined $1 for refusing to work the public roads.

Harrison Hobbs and Bud Dobson, of the city, and Bud McCannell, Frank Wimbley, Bud Cross and Clint Dickerson, colored, were fined $20 and costs for crap-shooting.

The daring robbery reported in the "Register" Friday as having occurred at Burkholder's Mill, near Oaks, on the N. C. & St. L., and in which a couple of colored men were robbed of the large sum of $22, happened about a week ago at Stiles, on the Illinois Central.

UNBALANCED YOUNG MAN

Shot Himself Through the Head at Princeton

Milton Cartwright, 14 years of age, attempted suicide at Princeton by shooting himself through the head with a 32-caliber bull-dog. The ball entered the right eye and was taken out below his right ear, within ten minutes after the shot was fired. The doctor says Cartwright may recover, but blood poisoning is likely to set in.

Young Cartwright recently returned from Arkansas, where his mind became unbalanced. He thought he had committed some crime and was to be hanged, and told his brother and sisters, with whom he lives, that yesterday was his day to die.

An old negro woman, who used to belong to the boy's father, saw him attempt suicide and she is now in a very serious condition as a result of the shock.

The marriage of Mr. L. B. Ogilvie, the well known dry goods merchant, to Miss Bettie Woodfolk, of 721 Broadway, is announced to take place on July 12, at the home of the bride. Both are among Paducah's most aristocratic people, and have many friends to wish them the greatest of happiness.

Miss Ella McNett, of the city, and Mr. William Henry Robb, of DeLand, Fla., will be united in marriage on July 21, at Grace Episcopal church, at 8 p. m. The bride is one of Paducah's most attractive and accomplished young ladies, and is an heiress as well. The courtship to end on the above date began last winter while the bride-to-be was visiting in Florida.

THE FOURTH.

A Rather Quiet Celebration Today.

ATTRactions IN MANY PLACES.

The Parks are Full of People—Races Well Attended.

TWO THEATERS TONIGHT.

This is the day we celebrate, but we didn't seem to celebrate much today. It has been very quiet everywhere; in fact many say it was the least enthusiastic and most uneventful day they ever saw.

Yet there was no dearth of attractions, as will be seen by a glance at the list below:

THE RACES.

This afternoon at the West End Driving Park the regular July races, lasting two days, began. The stables are well filled with good steppers and excellent sport is assured all who attend. A good crowd went out this afternoon.

AT LABELLE PARK.

There was a large crowd at La Belle Park to participate in the entertainment there. In the forenoon there was a balloon ascension, and other attractions, including dancing, sufficient to hold the interests of the crowd.

THE BALL PARK.

There were two games of baseball today with Henderson, for fans and rooters, and this attraction as usual, held its own against counter attractions.

OTHER WAYS OF CELEBRATING.

Many people went over to the lakes, or out to Cold Springs to enjoy a cool holiday away from the city, and the result was, the city was constrained to believe from reading the above, that the city was almost depopulated—there were few left to remind one of the holiday.

Nearly all the stores were closed, the banks and government buildings were tight as an oyster, and all together conspired to render it a very quiet fourth, devoid even of the usual number of petty accidents.

AT RAMONA.

The A. O. U. W. picnic at Ramona Park was a delightful affair, and the crowd that attended was very large.

THEATERS TONIGHT.

This evening there will be good performances at both theaters, and they can be recommended to all.

OWEN'S CAVE.

Several hundred people went up to Owen's Cave yesterday to attend the celebration and all reported an enjoyable time.

KILLING IN CITTENDEN.

Thomas Lindsay Shot by Chas. Murphy.

There is considerable excitement in C. itenden county over another murder. Thomas Lindsay and Charles Murphy, farmers, living on the same farm about eight miles from Marion, became engaged in a difficulty while feeding their stock and Murphy shot Lindsay with a shotgun, and Lindsay died within an hour. The trouble arose over some hay.

Murphy surrendered to the authorities and is now in jail.

THE MISSING QUIGG.

He Has Never Called for His Baggage Here.

Pitcher Quigg, the little twirler who came through Paducah not long since and pitched a few innings for Paducah the day Stallman got so wild, left his baggage at King's hotel on North Sixth street. He remained there all night, but paid his bill, and acceding to Mr. King had a big roll of money. He left, saying he was going to pitch a game for Paducah, and never did show up and get his property, which is still there, and none of the local baseball men know where he went from here.

MARRIAGES ANNOUNCED.

Mr. L. B. Ogilvie and Miss Bettie Woodfolk—Mr. W. H. Robb and Miss Ella McNett.

The marriage of Mr. L. B. Ogilvie, the well known dry goods merchant, to Miss Bettie Woodfolk, of 721 Broadway, is announced to take place on July 12, at the home of the bride. Both are among Paducah's most aristocratic people, and have many friends to wish them the greatest of happiness.

Miss Ella McNett, of the city, and Mr. William Henry Robb, of DeLand, Fla., will be united in marriage on July 21, at Grace Episcopal church, at 8 p. m. TODAY'S GAMES.

This morning's game between Paducah and Henderson, the third of the series, resulted in a victory for the Indians, the score being 5 to 1 in favor of Paducah. It was a pretty game, played to a small crowd.

Pears and Petty in the box for the respective sides, pitched pretty good games, seven hits being made off Petty and eight off Pears. Only four errors were made, two on each side.

Schlemm landed a ball over left field fence, and made a circuit of the bases. Noonan played first this forenoon, McClelland right field and Clifford center field.

SUNDAY'S GAMES.

There was a tremendous crowd out yesterday afternoon to witness the second game with Henderson, despite the sweltering heat.

Clifford, the elegant little backstop who had a finger badly hurt soon after signing with Paducah, and went to St. Louis, but was never released, was telegraphed Saturday to report at once, and arrived yesterday morning. He played center field.

Henderson scored three times in the first inning. Paducah did not score until the second, when two crossed the plate. In the fifth one run was made, and the score was even. Henderson scored three times in the seventh on Paducah's errors, and things began to look pretty blue for the home boys, until Stanton, the universally popular catcher, drove a ball against deep center field fence and got as far as third. Murray brought him in, and in a few seconds the score was tied again. In the eighth Paducah scored again, placing her one in the lead.

Henderson went out in one, two three order, and the game was won by Paducah. Score 7 to 6.

Henderson kicked against the umpire, and there came near being a scrap twice over his decisions, once with Henderson's left fielder and once with the third baseman, alias "monkey trainer."

Constable Schroeder was present and arrested all the players for playing on Sunday.

Saturday's Game.

Sudhoff pitched one of the best games ever played on a local diamond Saturday. The Hop Gold boys—the crazy quilt club—was the variety of their uniforms, could not get next to his curve, and made only three hits off him, while Petty, who big, good natured twirler for the Hendersons, was rapped for nine. The visitors were shut out, while Paducah tallied four times.

Umpire Burquin gave excellent satisfaction, and was liberally commended for his decisions.

SCHEDULE FOR TOMORROW.

Henderson at Paducah.
Washington at Cairo.
Evansville at Terre Haute.

Pears and Stanton will be the battery for Paducah, and Petty or Williams and Belt for Henderson.

Olle Gferrer, of Shelbyville, Ind., arrived at noon to play center field for Paducah, and will probably be in this afternoon's game.

The great crowd will be out tomorrow to see the great game with Louisville league club. Dowling will pitch for Paducah.

"Hans Blues" and the "Eclipses," local amateur nines, played a game yesterday afternoon, resulting in a score of 18 to 6 in favor of the latter.

There was considerable objection on the part of the Hendersons to allowing Burquin to umpire today's game, and yesterday he was warned by the manager to resign. They claim he was against them in his decisions, and it was generally believed that somebody else would umpire today, but he declined to resign, and umpired the game.

Umpire Burquin, at yesterday's game, made a mistake in what he said to Ogden, Henderson's left fielder. Ogden made some remark which the umpire didn't like, and leaving the diamond he said "I'll punch your face," and all that prevented a fight was the intervention of the captain of the Hendersons. The umpire has a right to put a player out of the game or fine him, but no right to fight him.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

Seldom, even in periods of the greatest business activity, have the loans of the New York City banks scored as large a gain as the one reported just closed. They made an increase of $11,000,000. For several weeks past their loans have been increasing, but the expansion has made the largest known in any six days in a long time. Of course this increased demand for money is a business pointer of the highest value. It means that financial confidence is being restored, and that, unless delayed by labor disturbances, the industrial activity in the country will be greater than any experienced by the country in the past five years.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The citizens of Nashville, Tenn., could well afford to pay the Illinois Central Railroad Company a very large sum of money to build a road into that city, but the I. C. will not ask any subscription of them if it deems it advisable to build a line to that city. The I. C. would be worth a good many hundreds of thousands of dollars to Nashville each year, and it is not at all improbable that it will be running trains into that city within the next two years, especially if it purchases the Ohio Valley road next week, as it is thought it will certainly do.—Hopkinsville New Era.

That story about the snow storm

in Leadville, Colorado, on Saturday may be all true, but to a man watching the mercury lingering at 100 degrees

it appears to be a cruel hoax.

A FREE silver orator describes the situation in the following clear and forceful manner: "The muddy slough of politics, is the rock upon which our party has split in twain and fell to pieces from the pinnacle of imperishable fame. Let us then gear up our loins so that we may go forth

with a clear head."

The Queen's Jubilee is over but the American Jubilee is in full blast

today; and the beauty of our American

Jubilee is that it comes every year. One day suffices for the small boy to work off some of his effervescent enthusiasm, but the adult American has cause each day in the year to bless the day that our Fathers

founded the Great Republic.

Times may be hard out in Colorado, but the people of Denver have just completed a most remarkable feat of church debt raising, the manner of its accomplishment being characteristic of Western dash and perseverance, and also exhibiting a

A FOOLISH STRIKE.

The action of the United Mine

Workers of America in ordering a general miners' strike to go into effect today is an excellent illustration of the fact that the people themselves are doing all they can in many instances to retard the progress of good times. The main reason given for this strike, which, if general, will throw out of employment 350,000

miners, is found in the following statement in the official circular sent out ordering the strike:

"The signs of the times, as pointed out by the press and by testimony of men versed in public affairs, are that business is reviving, that an upward tendency in prices of all commodities is apparent. In the general business revival and industrial improvement, which is earnestly proclaimed, we ought to share, and if we do not attempt to share, we shall be false to ourselves and those dependent upon us."

"Times are improving" is the reason of the strike. But the very action of the United Mine Workers in ordering the strike will prevent 350,-

000 laborers from participating in the revival of good times; instead of getting steady work the miners will be idle; they will lose more in a few months this summer than they can make up in years of advanced wages, should they win the strike; and their prospects of winning the strike are most meager. The folly of the strike is especially great when we think that the men, who have today laid down their tools for a hopeless struggle are the very ones who have suffered most for the past four years and are the very ones who would be benefitted by the admitted revival of business, would they elect to take their share.

Human nature, however, is the same always; and just as long as irresponsible notoriety seekers can control labor organizations, and as long as the laborer, who wants only a good living for himself and his family, allows himself to be deluded by these alleged leaders, who would be out of a job were there no strikes,

just so long will strikes occur and will be accompanied by all the attendants of want, suffering, loss of positions and in the end inglorious defeat.

CHRISTIAN PATRIOTISM.

An Able Sermon by D. Hamner

at the Tent Meetings.

Valuable Thoughts Well Worth

Deep Consideration on

This, Our National

Holiday.

At the tent meeting July 4, 1897,

Dr. W. F. Hamner took for his text

"Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and unto God that which is

His." He said:

The vast and varied creation and the marvelous preservation and government of the universe express God

His original purpose in man was and ever will be His kingdom of righteousness, peace and joy. God wants to reign through the intelligent, vir-tuously chosen of free, moral beings capable of knowing and reflecting

His moral excellencies. This reign we term His kingdom. It is not a union of good men in common loyalty to truth and duty, nor is it that self propagating power of the gospel

but it is a transcendental real union of God and man after the pattern of Jesus Christ, a divine living organism, God and man. Christ is the great head of His kingdom. In order to establish this kingdom Christ has commissioned individuals and corporations among the heathen.

We specify the home, the church,

the state. The only design in the existence of either is the kingdom of God. The state is truly the minister of God. Paul and Peter and all the sacred writers of God declared that four were ordained of God in the chapter of Romans. Paul declared it in express terms; our Lord in the text recognizes both church and state and commands us to meet our obligations to both. These corporate organs are the commissioned servants of God to promulgate His kingdom among men, though Christ prescribed no definite form, for either

He recognized both as related to Him and as existing for His kingdom alone. State and church have a common origin, have the same domicile, both living in the home district in their spheres of operation, different in methods but one in aim, viz: The reign of righteousness through church's manhood. Now let us note some of the duties we owe to the state as an agency in the kingdom.

The basis of these duties is the relation the state sustains to the kingdom. Herein lies the foundation of citizenship. The state is God's minister and I as a member of His kingdom or as a creature of His hands and a subject of law must heed

His authority and discharge my duty to her, for her voice is the voice of Jehovah. When she recognizes her divine mission let us not specify the duties we owe the state in virtue of this relation.

VIRTUE.

The state is composed of persons and can never rise above the virtue and intelligence of the people; the source of her power is the people and she owes it to the state, to the virtuous and good, in order that we, as living witnesses in the great organization, may do our part in her great mission. The perpetuity of this government depends upon the virtue and intelligence of the voters. We must therefore improve our heart and mind; we must also contend for this standard. Let us erect a standard on which the wise and virtuous may repair, and leave the issue with

God. We have endangered the perpetuity of our much vaunted institutions

by opening the ballot box to the wicked and ignorant people at home, and the worst hordes from other shores. We hear the note of anarchy ringing out loud and defiant in our land, and already turn the finger of the common in our literature and platform and statutes, because we have allowed them to participate in government without regard to qualification, which alone constitute our bulwarks. Ignorance is the cradle of vice, and crime slaughters a nation. We must educate or we must perish as we see today as when it fell from the lips of the nation's orator

In our mighty educational movement

every person should take a lively interest.

LIBERTY.

We must maintain our freedom or our country can never proclaim it to the world. We owe it to the government to keep free; no shibboleth of statecraft, no decree of political or ecclesiastical council, not all the eloquence of oratory or the sovereign voice of the ballot can make a man

free whose heart is bound in sin or whose bosom throbs with disloyalty.

Many men walk your streets and breath the air of our grand republic,

yet they are slaves and in bonds galling and ignoble. The avicious

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

A contemporary, in speaking of the far ball knocked by "Old Bill" Powell, was misinformed. The giant baseball, who played with one of the first clubs organized here, is not the one who made the great drive here on the Trimble grounds. It was "Bill" Walker, and the blow was so terrific that the ball went past Katterjohn's back yard. Powell, however, made a great hit at New Orleans, the time the Paducah team went down to clean out the Crescent City club. Powell was a promising man but took to drink and died in an alley.

The Sunday Visitor's "special" artist must have had a jag on him Saturday. On the front page is a "creek" with a bridge over it and a sail boat on it. Under it are the words, "this is a picture by our 'special artist' showing how Soxalexis Murray, the hard-bitten left fielder of the Indians, looked to Petty yesterday afternoon at Rowdintown."

The only thing lacking was an explanation showing the resemblance of Ketter to a creek. The comparison of Petty to a sail boat may have been very accurate, as he is pretty slow.

If it is amusing when an idea some people can form of a city, and astonishing how they can ever form such a ridiculous one.

About a week ago, when the Paducah ball club played in Cairo, a crowd of Paducah gentlemen were on the street, car en route to the baseball park.

"Dem Paducah guys come from a bad place," remarked a Cairo sport to a crowd of his companions on the car.

"Yes," corroborated another, "up there at Paducah if a man spits on a street car door some of the b— behind him pulls a rope out of his pocket and they hang him. A fellow don't stand no show there 'all'!"

Speaking of music, the following is something timely, when one reflects upon the tunes that were inflicted upon suffering public by the brass bands on the glorious Fourth:

It was a sad scene. The old man lay on his bed, and by him sat the faithful wife, holding his worn hand in hers and forcing back the tears to greet his wandering look with a smile. She spoke words of comfort and of hope. But he felt the cold hand falling on him; and turned his weary eyes up to her pale, worn face.

"Jennie, dear wife, I am going." "Oh no, John, not yet, not yet." "Yes, dear wife," and he closed his eyes. "The end is near." The world—the world grows dark around me, gathering thicker and thicker, and I seem to hear sweet music."

"No, no, dear John; that's the brass band in the street."

"What?" said the dying man. "Have those scoundrels dared to come round here when they know I am dying? Give me my backjack, I'll let 'em see!" and in a towering rage the old man jumped from his bed, and before his wife could think, he had opened the window and had shied the backjack at the band.

"I've hit that Dutch leader, anyway," said he, and went back to bed and got better.

EVENING AND MORNING.

The night is done,
The moon has come,
The moonbeams through the leaves are stealing.
No song of bird
In tree or heard—
The soothing night-wind comes with healing.

My work is done,
Sweet rest has come,
Where loved ones are abiding;
For rest is theirs,
To those who sleep
At evening with hearts counting.

The night has fled,
The sun is here,
With flashing steps comes over the hills;
The earth awakes,
And music breaks,
From joyous birds and laughing rills.

To work again,
Mid sun or rain
With joyful heart I haste forth;
At setting sun
Brings sweet peace that wealth or birth
—William Spanton, in Christian Stand- ard.

HIS FIRST WIFE.

MADISON JANEWAY was always pointed out as a "self-made man," and was apparently well satisfied with his own handiwork, for content radiated from his full face and from his figure which had lost its youthful muscle and creeping decay of flesh. Mr. Janeway had satisfied his ambitions as far as it is possible for a man to do it. For untidily for his content, these aspirations were of the kind that are most often realized. He had a handsome wife and three bright children; he was president of the state bank, an institution known to be founded on the rock of sound finance; he had been mayor of Shawnee, and was a member of the legislature. So much of earthly glory had fallen to his share.

When he read the obituary of another self-made man, he always nodded his head sagely, as much as to say: "I know how it goes. I started with nothing myself." In fact, Mr. Janeway's election to the legislature came of the advice of the elders that for a man of the people, when his constituents hired a band and went to congratulate him, they found him ready with a speech. He said: "Fellow citizens, I will not try to tell you how my deep gratitude is to the result of the election. I wanted to be elected. I have wanted a good many things, and I've generally got them, but not without working. I started with nothing; I did chores for my keep; I went to school, yet I feel that I have won my way; that I am one, a private perhaps, in the great army of self-made men." He bowed, and retired amid loud applause. In another speech this would have provoked criticism, but one of the privileges of a self-made man is to praise his maker without stint.

Mr. and Mrs. Janeway had just come from a visit to their own house, which their architect assured them was in the purest style of the Gothic renaissance. But they were sure, too, which was the finest house in town, and quite eclipsed Mr. Morgan's red brick mansion.

They were to move into it at once, and Mrs. Janeway was about the old house planning what should be left behind, as not coming up to the artistic standard of the new place. "Come here a minute," she called from an obscure entry back of the dining-room.

Mr. Janeway laid down his paper and went to her, followed by Florry, their youngest child. "What is it, my dear?" he asked.

"Haden't I better pack this away? The frame's so shabby that it isn't fit for the new house." She pointed to a faded photograph hanging in a dark corner, with a broad smile, and eyes widely separated; the hair was parted and drawn back from the forehead like two curtains; a watch chain picked out in gilt encircled her neck, and her lips and cheeks were touched by carmine, giving the face a ghastly pretense of life.

Mr. Janeway stared at it meditatively. "I hadn't noticed it for a long time," he said.

"Who is that lady, papa?" Florry asked, looking at the picture as if she saw it for the first time.

"Why, Florry, that was my first wife," he answered, surprised that she had not known it before.

A CLOSE CALL.

It Was for John Curd, Esquire.

John Curd, a printer formerly employed on the "News," but now of Evansville, came in Saturday and was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Uterback on a bail writ sued out by undertaker Nance before County Judge Tully. He had great difficulty in furnishing bond, and once the officer started to jail with him and got almost there, when he prevailed upon him to give him another chance to arrange the matter, and he finally succeeded in effecting a settlement with Mr. Nance.

Mr. C. M. Leake intended to take out another bail writ today on a $150 debt, but found that Curd had left the city.

EAT CITY BAKERY BREAD

From 118, S. SECOND STREET, PADUCAH, KY.

The Best Loaf Ever Drawn From an Oven.

FRANK KIRCHHOFF

WILL SEE THAT YOU ARE WELL FED.

A Paducah lady truly said: The housewife with a level head insists on having CITY BAKERY BREAD.

As yet being a young bride, she had not had time to get the loaf completely from her head and heart, but she had it in her mind to try it.

Don't let some baker, in a jealous mood, say other loaves are JUST AS GOOD. Just try having FRANK KIRCHHOFF'S FOOD!

Your grocer, solid as rock, and his city in a healthy place, keeps City Bakery Bread in stock.

When once on Kirchhoff's bread, you've found you'll grow long and strong and find your folks will want no other kind.

A nice, crusty loaf is Kirchhoff's shop. We're many a natural loaf-maker. And couldn't, without a single drop, FOR CITY BAKERY BREAD.

And Kirchhoff's bakery's up to date. With bread and cakes and pies all straight. And everything both new and weighty. "Kicks any of Kirchhoff's."

So if you had your health made good, and always be in happy mood. You'll always ask for KIRCHHOFF'S FOOD!

LIQUOR AND HEAT

Result in the Sudden Death of Wm. Reed, a Stranger.

William Reed, a farmer of the county, died in the loft at Isaacman's livery stable, Second and Clark streets, Saturday night. He recently served a term in the county jail for stealing several pounds of butter from a farmer at the same stable.

He had been doing odd jobs since his release, and slept around where ever he could.

Two young men in passing the stable Saturday night heard him groan, and an investigation revealed his condition hopeless. He died of apoplexy, superinduced by heat and excessive drink, soon after Dr. Robertson arrived.

Coroner Nance held an inquest yesterday and no new facts were developed. The verdict was in accordance with the above facts. Reed was a stranger and nothing is known of his family. The remains were buried in the county graveyard.

TREACHEROUS FIRE EATER

Dennis Smith Was Badly Injured Today.

Dennis, the little son of Mr. Joe Smith, of Broad street, was severely burned early this morning about the eyes and face by the explosion of a firecracker. His eyesight, however, is not seriously hurt.

WOOLEN MILLS SHUT DOWN

Several Hundred Men Temporarily Out of Employment at Mayfield.

The Mayfield Woollen Mills closed down for a week Saturday, on account of the heat, and to take an inventory of the establishment. This temporarily deprives between 500 and 800 people of employment.

Used a tool's. Pete Griffin and a countryman named Bruce had an altercation in Potter's restaurant this afternoon and used stools on each other. Both were arrested.
